SECTION 1: ASSOCIATION GOVERNANCE POLICIES

1.1 Rules of the MetroTex Association of REALTORS®, Inc. (MetroTex and/or Association)

The Association may adopt or be issued various kinds of rules. Below is a historical narrative concerning the rules of the Association.

MetroTex was established in the state of Texas in 1917, originally named the “Dallas Real Estate Board, Inc.,” and due to various mergers became the “MetroTex Association.” The Board originally filed Articles of Incorporation (not for profit corporate status) with the State of Texas on May 22, 1924

The most current document available is the Charter which was rendered to the Association in by the National Association of Real Estate Boards (now known as the National Association of REALTORS®). The Charter prescribes MetroTex's privileges and responsibilities, including the duty to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws and observe the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS®.

MetroTex was granted tax-exempt, not for profit 501 c (6) status by the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service.

MetroTex's Bylaws were adopted and have been amended at various meetings. The most recent amended version of the Bylaws is dated July 23, 2026.

MetroTex recognizes, in its Bylaws, the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order as the authority governing procedures at all meetings and conferences of MetroTex.

In addition, MetroTex members at regular or special meetings, or MetroTex's Board of Directors, at a regular or special meeting, may adopt special rules governing meetings as found necessary to supplement or modify rules provided in Robert's Rules of Order. Special rules supersede any rules in the parliamentary authority with which they may conflict.

Standing Rules as outlined in the Policy Manual may also be adopted at any regular or special meeting prescribed procedure.

MetroTex is subject to all provisions of local, state and national law and regulation applying to professional, trade, tax- exempt, not for profit 501(c)(6) corporations.

The following documents pertaining to the rules of MetroTex are made a part of this manual or are located at the MetroTex corporate headquarters for review.

1. National Association Rules

- Constitution and Bylaws of the National Association of REALTORS®.
- Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS® (“Code”)
- Charter issued by the National Association of REALTORS®.

- Membership Criteria of the National Association of REALTORS®

2. Federal Government Rules

- Tax-exempt, not for profit 501(c)(6) status letter granted by the US Treasury Dept., IRS

3. State Government Rules

- Articles of Incorporation granted by Texas Secretary of State, for MetroTex.

4. Association Bylaws

- Bylaws provide the foundation for Association governance and are amended by the Board of Directors and membership as outlined in the Bylaws.

1.2 Policy Formulation vs. Policy Administration

Distinctions are quite often obscure between and among such terms as policies, rules, positions, directives, regulations, procedures and practices. Consequently, the following shall serve as definitions for MetroTex concerning the terms used in the manual and MetroTex generally:

1. ARTICLES AND BYLAWS are rules governing the operation of MetroTex adopted by the members and/or the Board of Directors. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Policy Manual and the Bylaws, the Bylaws and Articles will prevail.
2. RULES OF ORDER AND STANDING RULES are rules governing the operation of MetroTex adopted by the Board of Directors in session with the advice and/or recommendation of staff or legal counsel.
3. POSITIONS are descriptive narratives, sometimes including recommendations, outlining the concerns and/or views of MetroTex members on current issues adopted by the Board of Directors in session with the advice and/or recommendation of staff or legal counsel.
4. PROGRAMS are descriptions of activities relating to MetroTex adopted by the Board of Directors and/or membership in session with the advice and/or recommendation of staff or legal counsel.
5. POLICIES are general or fundamental principles relating to Association involvement adopted by the members of the Board of Directors or membership in session with the advice and/or recommendation of staff or legal counsel. They are broad enough to allow latitude in implementation but narrow enough to give clear guidance.
6. PROCEDURES are the detailed explanations, directions or actions to implement adopted articles, Bylaws, rules, positions, programs and policies selected and applied by staff with the advice and/or recommendation of the Chair. Such policies address specific directions telling how, by whom and when things are to be done.

1.3 Definitions

Committees. Committees are established as permanent bodies of the Association to oversee defined areas of its ongoing operations, governance, and strategic initiatives. Each Committee shall have a continuing charge and such authority as may be delegated by the Board of Directors.

Committees shall carry out functions necessary to preserve, strengthen, and advance the mission and objectives of the Association, either through their own direct action or by the creation of subordinate task forces, advisory groups, or Chair's Advisory Groups ("CAGs") to accomplish specific objectives within their assigned area of responsibility.

Committees shall consist of members appointed in accordance with this Policy Manual or the Association's Bylaws. Members must apply and be accepted for service, shall be required to attend meetings, and shall perform the duties of their office diligently. Each Committee shall report to the Executive Committee and/or the Board of Directors as provided in this Policy Manual, the Association's Bylaws or as otherwise directed by the Board.

Real Estate Profession. The phrase "real estate profession" shall mean including without limitation the buying, selling, exchanging, renting, leasing, managing, appraising of real property for compensation, inspecting, counseling, building, developing, subdividing, or auctioning of real property.

Member. "Member" shall mean an individual who qualifies and is elected to any class of membership in the Association as defined in the Bylaws and who pays applicable membership fees.

Executive Committee. The Executive Committee of the Association shall consist of the following individuals: the Chair, Chair-Elect, Treasurer, Immediate Past Chair, and one (1) Executive Committee Member At-Large ("Executive Committee"). The Executive Committee shall have such authority and responsibilities as are expressly set forth in the Bylaws or as may be delegated by the Board of Directors from time to time, subject to applicable law. The role of the Executive Committee is often consultative, but the Executive Committee may be authorized to negotiate contracts or take direct administrative action on personnel matters regarding the CEO.

Subcommittees. Subcommittees may be established by the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee, or a committee to provide focused oversight, subject-matter expertise, and strategic recommendations on defined areas of responsibility within the Association's programs, initiatives, or operations.

They function as extensions of their parent committees, assisting with research, policy development, and program execution, but do not possess independent decision-making authority unless expressly delegated by the Board or establishing committee.

Membership may be open or by appointment, as determined by the creating body, with selection based on relevant experience or expertise. Attendance and participation requirements shall be set by the parent committee or governing body. Subcommittees may be ongoing or time-limited and shall automatically dissolve upon completion of their charge or when their objectives are deemed fulfilled.

Forums. Forums may be established by the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee, or any Committee or Advisory Group to provide opportunities for member engagement, networking, and professional development. Forums serve as open platforms for education, dialogue, and the exchange of ideas among members and other participants in the real estate community.

Forums are advisory and informational in nature and shall not possess formal decision-making authority. They may include specialized programs, presentations, or events designed to enhance knowledge, collaboration, and the sharing of perspectives within defined areas of interest or practice.

Participation in Forums shall be open to all members of the Association. Attendance is encouraged but not mandatory; however, applicable registration or “no-show” policies may be enforced for events requiring advance registration. Forums may be organized or hosted under the direction of an Advisory Group, Committee, or staff liaison.

Task Force. Task Forces may be established by the Board of Directors on the recommendation of the Executive Committee, to address a specific issue, conduct in-depth analysis, or accomplish a defined short-term objective within the scope of the creating body’s authority.

Task Forces are temporary in nature and shall exist only for the duration necessary to complete their assigned charge. Each Task Force shall report its findings, analysis, or recommendations to the body that created it, which shall determine any further action or implementation based on those findings.

The composition, duties, and duration of each Task Force shall be defined at the time of its creation. Unless otherwise authorized by the Board of Directors, Task Forces shall not possess independent decision-making authority and shall be dissolved automatically upon completion of their purpose or upon determination by the creating body that the Task Force is no longer necessary.

Chair’s Advisory Group. A Chair’s Advisory Group (CAG) is a small, purpose-driven body appointed by the Chair, with clearly defined objectives, a specific start and end date, and measurable outcomes. CAGs are established to research, evaluate, or address targeted issues and to provide recommendations to the Executive Committee or Board of Directors. They serve as an outreach mechanism to engage members and non-members who are not otherwise involved in the governance or direction of the Association.

Appointments to a CAG shall be made by the Chair under whose term the group is expected to report, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee. Each CAG shall operate in accordance with the Association’s standard committee procedures as outlined in this Policy Manual, including documentation of its formation, stated purpose, selection process, meeting minutes, interim reports, and a final report summarizing findings and recommendations.

Ex-Officio. A person included by virtue of his/her/their position and considered a voting member unless otherwise stated.

1.4 Board of Directors

The MetroTex Bylaws establish the Board of Directors as the governing body of the Association and define its composition as set forth therein.

First and foremost, it is a policy-making body. Policy decisions are those that affect the organization as a whole, to determine mission, vision, goals, programs on the broadest scale. On the other hand, operational decisions affecting individual programs, services or people (employees), the efficiency and quality of services and day-to-day operations are the purview of the President & Chief Executive Officer.

A basic rule is that the legal entity, rather than the Board of Directors, is the holder of legal power. The powers of the Directors are not inherent in them, but in the organization as such. The principle exists that Directors or trustees exercise the powers of the organization, but do not own it. Thus, the Board of Directors has the power and duty to carry on whatever transactions the corporation or the association itself has the power to carry on. The power of the Board of Directors is superior, in ordinary matters, so long as it is exercised lawfully and in lawful transactions.

The Board of Directors is, in essence, the trustee in the literal and legal sense of the term. No matter how the organization is structured, or the degree of authority delegated to Committees, staff or affiliates, the Board - and therefore the Directors - are ultimately accountable. The Board of Directors holds in trust the principal responsibility for fulfilling the Association's purpose and mission - as well as the legal accountability for its operations. This accountability does not mean that a director should fear liability for every association loss or mishap that may occur; MetroTex Board members are shielded from liability for errors of judgment - as long as directors act reasonably and in good faith, and with the basic interests of the Association as the foremost objective.

Members of the Board of Directors shall have the utmost best interests of the MetroTex in mind at all times. Directors shall avoid any contract that may serve their personal interests and should never assume any position that brings their personal interests into conflict or competition with the interests of MetroTex.

Finally, The Board of Directors, as the elected and/or appointed officials, has the responsibility to serve the entire industry or profession. Each individual member has an important responsibility to represent and promote the best interests of the Association.

Any such challenge must be submitted to Association staff, in the manner designated by the Association, within five (5) business days following notice of ineligibility. Staff shall review the appeal and present findings for final confirmation

The IRS establishes an “accountable plan” travel-expense allowance based on what is considered to be ordinary, necessary, and directly related to the active conduct of one’s trade or business. Accordingly, the Association limits of reimbursement may seem somewhat restrictive. Expenses must be actually incurred and documented by dated and itemized receipts in order to warrant reimbursement under the Association policies. “Trade-offs” (i.e., submission of an expense voucher for other expenditures in lieu of transportation, lodging, and meals) do not meet the IRS criteria of “directly related” and therefore are not reimbursable.

When receipts are submitted for reimbursement, the Association limits, as stated herein, apply. Detailed itemized receipts including date of service, itemization of expense and gratuity are required for ALL receipts.

k. REIMBURSEABLE EXPENSES DEFINITIONS EXPENSE REPORT FORMS

When in doubt: preserve it.

- Edit, alter, or backdate documents
- Move records to personal systems to avoid retention
- Enable disappearing messages
- Reset or wipe devices used for Association work
- Destroy paper originals after scanning
- Use unofficial channels to avoid preservation

No one may destroy potentially relevant evidence, even if the evidence appears unfavorable.

6. What Can Still Be Deleted

Courts recognize that original documents may contain relevant physical or forensic characteristics not captured in scanned copies. Accordingly, no original documents shall be destroyed while this litigation hold remains in effect.

11. Consequences of Non-Compliance

Courts evaluating document destruction consider:

- Whether policies were suspended

Failure to preserve relevant records can lead to court sanctions, financial penalties, and legal risk for both the Association and individuals.

12. Duration of the Hold

This litigation hold remains in effect until legal counsel formally lifts it in writing. Until that happens, records covered by this policy must not be deleted or altered.

13. Questions
